

City of Edmonton's Community Safety and Well-being Task Force

Dr. Annette Trimbee is president and vice-chancellor of MacEwan University. Her interest and experience in community well-being and safety stems from leading two urban universities in growing Canadian cities. As a member of the Manitoba Métis Federation, she was proud to oversee the development of a mandatory Indigenous course requirement for undergraduate students attending the University of Winnipeg, among the first in Canada. Dr. Trimbee is also highly engaged in dialogue across Canada on matters of equity, diversity, and inclusion in higher education.
