City of Edmonton's Community Safety and Well-being Task Force

Marni Panas has a Bachelor's degree in Health Administration and has a Canadian Certified Inclusion Professional Designation. She also possesses 10 years of diversity and inclusion experience and currently leads the Diversity and Inclusion team at one of Canada's largest organizations. She also serves on the Board of the Canadian Centre for Diversity and Inclusion and is a member of the Edmonton Police Service – Chief's Advisory Council on Diversity Sexual and Gender Minorities Community Liaison Committee.

She has also provided input and education on a number of City of Edmonton initiatives for the purpose of inclusion of gender and sexual gender minority people and also participated in the work that added Gender Identity and Gender Expression to Alberta and Canada's Human Rights Act including providing expert testimony to the Canadian Senate Constitutional and Legal Affairs committee.

She won the Woman of Vision award in 2019 and a Human Rights Award by the John Humphrey Centre for Peace and Human Rights in 2014.